

i-Learner Oxford Scholars Tour 2025
(Private Tours)
Fees and Reservation

Overview of the Tours

i-Learner Oxford Study Tour is a two-week comprehensive academic programme based in Oxford University and the City of Oxford that gives our brightest and most ambitious students the opportunity to experience scholarly life at one of the best universities in the world and understand significant aspects of British culture and history. The private tours are for parents who would like to take their younger children to Oxford to join our experiential learning activities organised by our tours from the UK.

Dates for 2025: 20th July to 3rd August, 2025

Carroll: Age 7-10

Be as adventurous as Alice in Wonderland and explore Oxford with the Carroll group, named for the exciting book's author, Lewis Carroll. Learn about a new culture, make discoveries, and question everything, just like Alice.

Number of participants: 8

Tuition, Lunches and Activities: HK$ 32,000

Parents are expected to collect the child at the end of the day.*

Tolkien: Age 11-14

Think deeply and stretch your imagination, just as J R R Tolkien did when writing his famous Lord of the Rings. Discover a world of possibilities and find out how far your mind can take you.

Number of participants: 8

Tuition, Lunches and Activities: HK$ 32,000

Parents are expected to collect the child at the end of the day.*

Additional Cost:

All the students and parents should book their own flights to come to Oxford. i-Learner will arrange the following services with an additional cost:

- Airport escort and pick up: $800 for one trip per person
