

My Day at the Beach

Today was a clear and boudless day. I planed to enjoy to gorgeous view at the beach with my family.

When we arrived the beach, I saw the deep blue sea ocean that looked like diamond pieces. I jumped into the sea. I swims for a long time. Until I felt tired, then I fell asleep...

Oh! Why I could swim so fast? When I woke up, I couldn't find my feet! They are disappeared! Instead, I had a fish tail on my legs. I am a mermaid now! Shortly,

I saw something that looks like a Hot Air Ballon. When I wanted to stand up. It pinch my throat, I almost couldn't catch my breath. I struggled desperately, but the plastic bag became tighter and tighter. Thankfully, an old sea turtle come and bite of the plastic bag on my neck. I am extremely grateful to thank him and says: 'Why is there so much waste here? In the story book, the ocean is very pretty. Yes it is. But now many people throw the rubbish in the sea when they can't find the rubbish bin. I am a sea administrator. Increasingly, I notice animals getting caught in plastic waste or consuming plastic materials. He told to me with a unhappy face. Speaking, speaking. I remember that I threw Cola bottle into the sea. Now, I finally feel if people continue to throw rubbish into the sea, then what will the sea look like.

When I open my eyes, I told to my family about my dream and what we need to do for the sea. Mum said, 'If you want to learn more about how to keep the sea clean, you can join a lecture in your school for free. Because protect the ocean is everyone's responsibility! I secretly gained a lot today.
